Foreword

We, the annual staff, are happy to present to you the 1963 AQUILA as the culmination of high school activity. The staff, however, has furnished only the outlines of the many stories that are portrayed throughout this book.

To produce the annual has required not only our talent but also much perserverance. It is our aspiration that this edition affords much pleasure to the students, the faculty, and the parents both now and in the years to come.

Dedication

MRS. HELEN L. INGRAM

As a symbol of our deep gratitude, love, and appreciation, we, the seniors of Anson High School, proudly dedicate this yearbook, the 1963 AQUILA, to a wonderful teacher, Mrs. Helen L. Ingram, in recognition of her understanding, kindness, encouragement, and most of all her guidance in making this yearbook possible.

In Memory of

FRANCES CATHERINE TARLETON

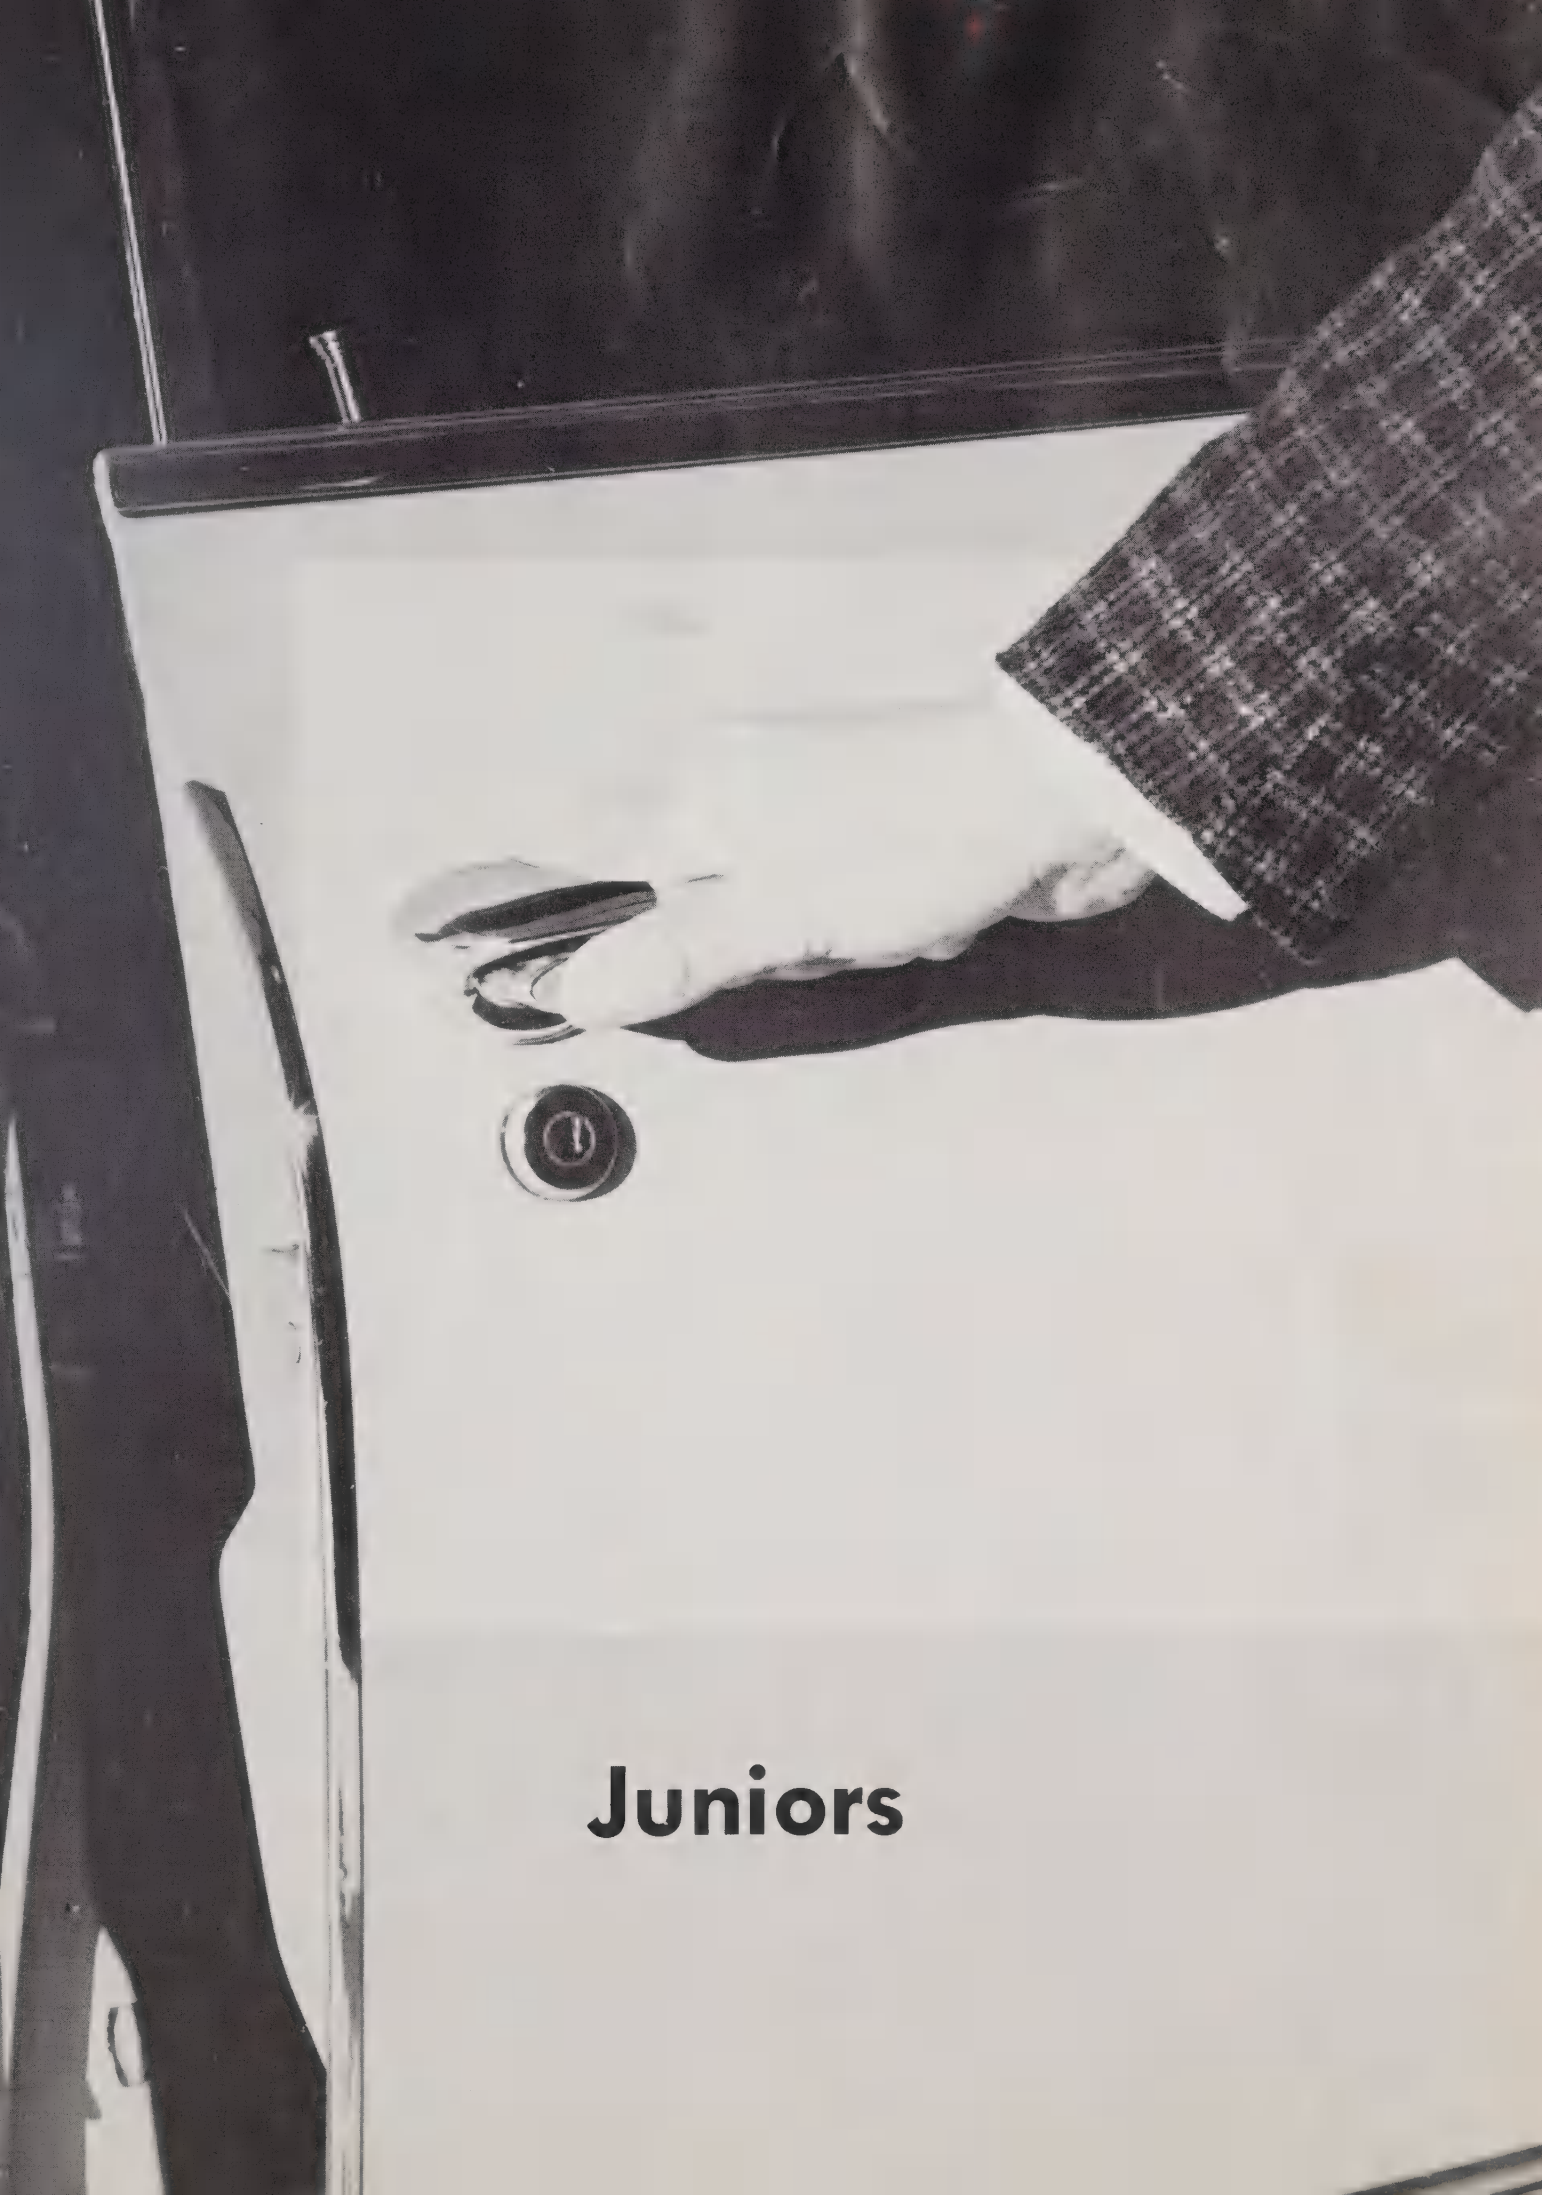

We, the class of 1963, looking back through the years, realize that we have gained much from those we have met. We know that a part of each one will always remain in our lives. We see one lone figure who stands out among all the rest. Her deeds, her kindness, her friendly spirit set her apart. At this time we are fully aware that this figure will remain in our hearts forever.

We, the class of 1963, have greatly missed her, but she left us a precious memory of a life well-lived and a desire to reach, as she did, for the finer, purer things that make living worthwhile.

We, who have so much and deserve so little, are offering this last tribute to Frances who is gone - but not forgotten.

Tune: NAVY BLUE AND GOLD

Here's to the Eagles of Anson High
We sing of colors true,
For who has better right than we
To have a symbol true?
Columbia Blue with red and white
In our hearts will recall,
That the days we spend at Anson High
Are the happiest days of all.

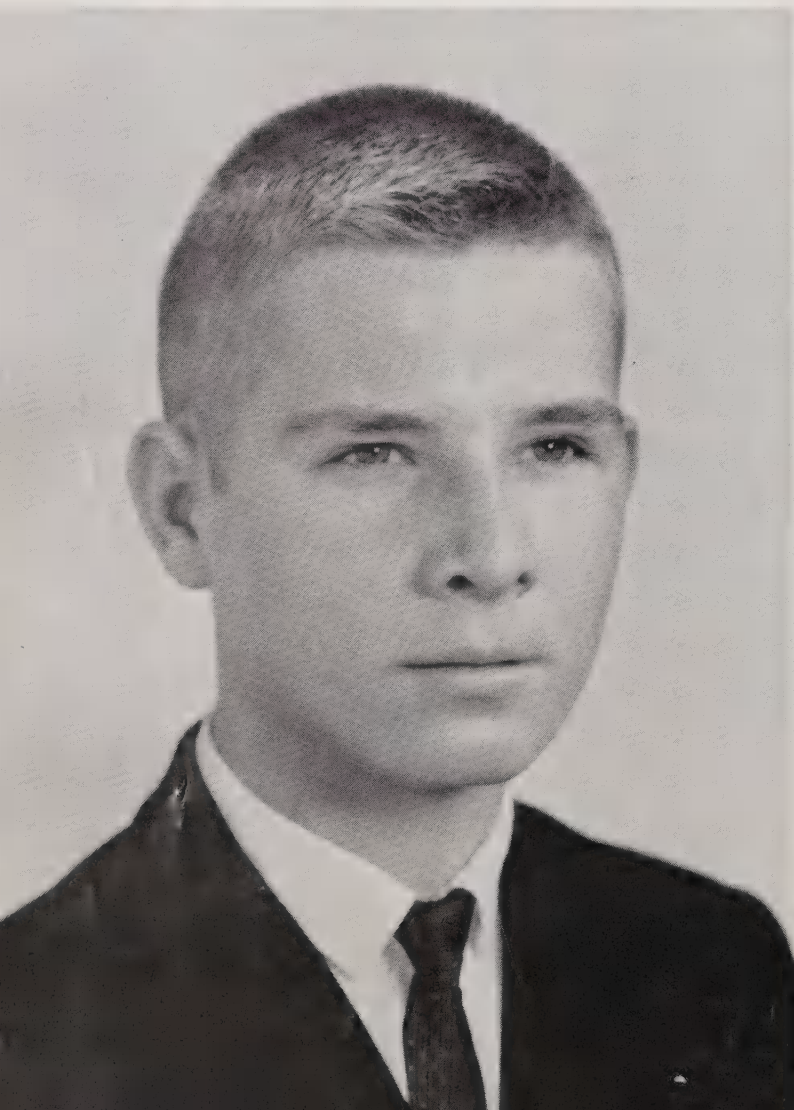

We 'oft recall the loyal friends
And cherish evermore,
The days we spend at Anson High
A knowledge to implore,
Our teachers dear who help us here
A knowledge to obtain,
We love you and we hope you know
Your memories remain.
